

MARK RICCADONNA

Comedian • Storyteller
Keynote Speaker

Speaking Topics: Pursuing Happiness, Living in the Moment, Finding fun even in failure

WHY MARK RICCADONNA?

Mark Riccadonna is a nationally touring comedian, storyteller, and actor who has built his career on one core belief: happiness isn't something you chase — it's something you practice.

With a background that stretches from performing for the troops overseas to headlining clubs, theaters, cruise ships, and corporate stages, Mark blends humor, heart, and hard-earned perspective into keynote talks that leave audiences laughing, reflecting, and seeing their own lives with fresh eyes.

Mark brings the warmth of a storyteller, the punchlines of a seasoned comic, and the insight of someone who's lived a few thousand miles of trial-and-error — sometimes with nothing but a beat-up notebook and a coffee to guide him.

WHAT MAKES MARK DIFFERENT

Mark isn't a motivational speaker pretending to be funny. He's a comic who actually understands people — their anxieties, their ambitions, and all the ridiculousness in between.

His talks are:

✓ Funny

Laugh-out-loud material delivered with the timing of a veteran headliner.

✓ Relatable

Real-life stories about parenting, travel, messing up, getting up, and trying again.

✓ Meaningful

Takeaway insights that feel personal, not preachy.

✓ Customizable

Mark tailors his keynote for whoever is in front of him.
